MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director for Special Operations

SUBJECT : Status of Strategic Services Unit

1. By memorandum to the Director of Central Intelligence dated 25 October 1950, Mr. Earl D. Johnson, Assistant Secretary of the Army, stated that the Army desires that the remaining relationship between the Department of the Army and the Strategic Services Unit be terminated on 1 November 1950. He further stated that the assignment of duties relating to Strategic Services Unit matters will, in the future, be a matter of internal concern to the Central Intelligence Agency and will not require the approval of the Department of the Army.

2. Mr. Johnson is being informed by memorandum from the Executive of the acceptance of this Agency of all remaining responsibility for the Strategic Services Unit. A copy of this memorandum is attached for your information.

3. The Assistant Director for Special Operations is charged with responsibility for remaining functions of the Strategic Services Unit until it is completely liquidated. He may delegate this responsibility within his office as he sees fit.
